

Developing an Ozarks Green Thumb

Saturday, March 14, 2026
9:00 A.M. – 3:00 P.M.
Doors open at 8:00 A.M.

First Baptist Church, Christian Life Center
1205 Spring Street, Mountain Home, AR 72653

Speakers

Scott Beuerlein

Manager of Botanical Garden Outreach at the Cincinnati Zoo and Botanical Garden
"If Some Is Good, More Is Better— Plant Diversity Forever"

Kelly McGowan

Field Specialist in Horticulture, University of Missouri Extension
"Pollinators and Natives"

Christopher Cooper, PhD

County Director, UT-TSU Extension Shelby County
"Balance in the Garden: Integrated Pest Management— Strategies Every Gardener Should Know"

Scott Beuerlein

Manager of Botanical Garden Outreach at the Cincinnati Zoo and Botanical Garden
"Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury... the Closing Argument for Annuals"

Event Includes:

Horticulture table, MG project displays, and Silent Auction including garden-themed items.
Cash, check, & major credit cards accepted.
Snacks and drinks are provided throughout the day.

Seminar Cost:

$40 (Includes lunch catered by The Grill at Whispering Woods)
Limited Seating! Registration begins January 2, 2026.

Registration:

Register online and pay by credit/debit card or mail in a check.
Scan the QR Code below or follow this link.

http://uada.formstack.com/forms/ozarks_green_thumb

